

Group A. Week 1

Weds	English Spelling Children should have spellings from last term – please test them on these. They are expected to get 9 or 10 out of 10. Then this spelling lesson and tasks, plus spellings to practice for next week.	Maths Revision – Addition and subtraction booklet here	Music Adele – Make you Feel my love. Listen to the song here Begin to learn the Sign language for the song here. (This will be every other week for 6 weeks, please just start with the 1st verse.)
Thurs	English Comprehension Found in dropbox here Please complete A Hung Parliament. Pgs 13 – 17. The answers are on page 18 though – beware!	Maths Revision – Addition and Subtraction. Continue with addition and subtraction booklet from yesterday. If completed move onto tomorrow’s multiplication and division work book.	ICT Ozaria - Computer science that captivates → I’m a student → Play now The students have already done this partially, in school, but wanted an opportunity to finish it.
Fri	English Poetry/Figurative Language  We have looked at different forms of figurative language already, this is an opportunity to revisit and revise this, as they are easy to forget or get muddled on, if not reviewed regularly.  Work here.	Maths Multiplication and division revision here -  followed by: 99 Club – Your child knows which club they’re in. They must complete the sheet in exactly 5 minutes or less. If they do so, they move onto the next level, next Friday.	Art Use some baking parchment or greaseproof paper, to make your own stained glass window. Take a look at the work of Brian Clarke, for some inspiration, then see if you can make your own. Felt tip pens work best for this, but experiment with what you have! You can even mount your work in some black paper to make a contrasting frame. Some themes you could choose include: Sealife The sky Springtime A Sweet Factory
